YOUNG BIRD CHAMPIONSHIP SELECTION:

We had 173 birds at our selection day, and was well supported by our Beginner and Intermediate members who are starting to breed some quality birds.

Best Bird on the day and winner of the Robert Davis Trophy was T & S Appleton with a Spangle Green Hen.

Reserve Bird was by David Charlton a Dominant Pied Sky Blue

Best Variety Bird was the Fallow by Anthony Hatherell

VICTORIAN YOUNG BIRD CHAMPIONSHIP:

United won on the day 786 points, 2nd Mountain with 639, 3rd Melton 601 and Eastern 4th with 499 points with 12 clubs further back, we always seem to struggle in a number of varieties, hopefully our keen beginners can fill the void.

Best Bird was by Steve Grech a Cinnamon Hen. Reserve was Peter Thurns Cinnamon.

Best Intermediate Exhibit was Mark Brennand with a Grey Green, Reserve Sean Zunneberg with a Spangle DF

Best Beginner Exhibit was Con Herouvin with Grey Green, Reserve was Stephen Quinn with an Opaline

Congratulations to our members that placed highly at the Championship especially Garry Stagg taking out his first class win also to two of our up and comers in Stephen Quinn and Mark Brennand.

Garry Stagg- 1st place Lacewing, T & S Appleton-2nd Greens, 3rd Opaline AOSV and 4th Spangle, David Charlton- 2nd Dominant Pied, Mark Brennand-3rd Grey Greens, Stephen Quinn- 3rd Opalines, McVilly & Thompson- 5th Clearbody, L Richardson -5th Cinnamons

1st National Class
Garry Stagg
